It being an admitted fact, that "Money makes money," the object of LA BIENHECHORA could not be better, since it opens a vast Savings Bank for the surplus or savings of the Public, so that, by the proper employment of these small gains, a moderate capital, or even annuity, may be secured in a short time. By this means a provident, though helpless, family can husband their small means, and, in the end, attain a competency.

It being proved that the accumulation of interest is the most powerful means of augmenting the capital, THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA—an Argentine Company, whose only investments are in the country—holds out to Subscribers greater advantages than any other Institution, by reason of all its dealings being in the River Plate, where are current as large interests as in any part of the world.

THE BIENHECHORA DEL PLATA receives Deposits of from Five Patacones per Annum up to any amount in Weekly, Monthly, or Yearly Instalments.

This Preparation has proved itself to be the best ever presented to the Public—a fact to which thousands who have used it are ready to testify. A few applications will change brash, dry, and wiry hair into the most beautiful silken tresses; if the Hair is falling off, or becoming gray, the use of the Renewer will surely arrest its decay, and cause it to assume in a short time all its former beauty.

As a Hair Dressing, this Renewer is unequalled by any other hair preparation in the world; and as it contains no poisonous drugs whatever, the Proprietors offer the Sicilian Hair Renewer to the Public with every confidence.

THE FRAUDULENT COUPONS.

There is no country in the world where the doctrine "caveat emptor" should be more clearly defined than in the River Plate. Documents the most sacred—contracts the most binding—paper the most negotiable are all apparently void, voidable and invalid at the will of the debtor, at least, if we are to pay attention to some of the writers of the press. Some limit must be put to this undefined state of commercial law, and the fraudulent emission of the foreign coupons, many years past discovered in the Government House, and now made public, will, although it increase the public debt by millions at least, secure to us one blessing, by defining the responsibility of governments to the public.

So thin is the line to be drawn between a legal quibble and the most flagrant repudiation, that the very best thing for the public in such matters, is to thoroughly ventilate it.

The swindle at the Government House, and the liability of the country for the debts thereby incurred, must be clearly understood before discussed.

Owing to the repeated civil wars in this country, claims for losses and damages arising therefrom, by foreigners of English, French and other nationalities, were presented to the Argentine Government by the respective foreign ministers. After due examination by the committees named, certain claims were allowed, and the Argentine Republic, not having funds at its disposal to liquidate these amounts, a law was passed authorizing the government to emit coupons for the amount, with interest, payable at certain stated periods. The office for the transaction of this business was created, and a special commision composed of the following parties: Messrs. Pondal, Aranda and Garcia named to attend to the discharge of the trust, sign and issue the coupons, pay same to the respective foreign Ministers, the representatives of the claimants, and keep the necessary records.

The coupons are in a printed form, specify the amount when due and payable to bearer; they are issued very much like checks, being cut from a book which retains an entry of the amount, &c.

These books, it was found necessary, owing to the extensive business of the office, to confide to the care of clerks, who, when a claim was duly adjudged, filled up the amount in a certain series of coupons, payable at long and distant dates—thus a claim for one thousand patacons usually ranged over a period of 34 years, and for each payment or instalment a coupon was issued. The signing of these numerous coupons seems more to have been a matter of form than anything else, by the committee in question, and it is stated (upon what authority we cannot say,) that in order to facilitate business, these coupons were usually signed in blank.

The extent of the fraud is not yet known, but it is stated that, two years ago, the National Government discovered that there had been an over issue of these coupons, by the fact that the moneys set apart by Congress for their payment were altogether insufficient, and, departing from the strict line, the Executive, in a moment of the most reprehensible weakness, and after holding a cabinet council to decide upon what course to adopt,—determined to pay the over-issued coupons falling due, out of funds set apart by Congress for other objects.

It is not neccessary for our purpose now, in order to clearly establish the liability of the Government, to point to the fact that the Government, by paying the coupons of a debt, which it knew at the time to have been fraudulently contracted, has not only legalized the fraud, but has silenced every question that might arise from the over issue. The authorities, on the subject, are so extremely explicit, that there is not even the room for a question. Had the Government merely concealed its knowledge of the fraud, it would have waived its right, as has been decided in the case of Alexander versus Vane 1, Mees and Welsh 571, and Story says:—"The mere silence of a person will create an implied liability, where it was his duty to speak, in case he intended not to assume a personal responsibility, and especially where his silence afforded a material inducement to the contract." And again the same distinguished authority says:—"That if one of two innocent persons must suffer a loss and a fortiori, where one has misled the other, he who has been the cause of the loss must bear it." [Teasdale v. Teasdale, Sel. Cas. ch. 59.]

But the question cannot be debated upon these points, since the payment of the fraudulent cupons by the Government, after the knowledge that they were fraudulent, silences all such quibbles.

We are prepared to admit that the coupons were over issued by a fraud of the clerks, that the Government knew nothing of the matter until this moment; still, since the signatures to the coupons are genuine, and the face of the document has not been altered, the liability of the Government is established as decided in the case of Sagory and others, against the Haarlem R. R. Co., one of the most important cases decided by the American Courts, and carried by appeal to the highest tribunals of the land. As the Haarlem R. R. case is one in point, we give the case:

Schuyler the President of the company, issued a number of shares immensely in excess of the capital, the shares were duly signed and issued with the usual formalities, they were sold and delivered on the stock exchange, and in the hands of third parties before the fraud was discovered. The company did not adopt the line pursued by the National Government, and knowingly pay dividends on the fraudulent shares on the contrary the instant the fraud was detected they announced it, closed their books and cautioned the public. Holders of fraudulent shares were not recognized. They sued the company the lawsuit lasted for over 12 years, when after a luminous argument the high Court of appeal unanimously decided that the company should recognize the shares as the signatures were genuine and pay the loss.

The coupons in question are negotiable paper — they are payable to bearer, and pass from hand to hand: they may be regarded in the same light as bank notes, and can only claim the same equities.

Is it to be supposed that because a clerk of the Provincial Bank of Buenos Ayres, or of any of the banks of emission of Montevideo, fraudulently puts into circulation new bank notes, all duly signed, but for which the Bank has not received one farthing of consideration, that the public is to suffer?

The clerks of the Government are as far as the public is concerned, its agents. There would indeed be an end to all securities if the doctrine of "caveat emptor" forced every buyer of a bond or a coupon to examine its history, origin, &c.

The doctrine is too monstrous to be advanced, and the Government must take the consequences of the fraud or neglect of its employés.

These coupons are of even a higher sanctity than a bill of exchange; they pass from hand to hand without even the formality of a written transfer—the law ordained that they should be received at the Government House in payment of certain duties, but in this regard the Government broke faith with the public and refused to receive them. Possibly if these coupons had been receivable at the Custom House, the fraud would never have been discovered, or, better still, never attempted.

Who cares whether the Government has received full value for these coupons or not—they have been duly signed by the proper parties—issued by the proper office, and openly sold in the market without the slightest attempt at secrecy. The law in cases of negotiable instruments presumes them to be founded on a valuable consideration in the hands of bona fide purchasers—the law debars all plea of want of consideration.

Nothing however could be more explict, more to the point than the case of Schuyler of the Haarlem Railway. The law is there laid down, and no court of law or equity will disrespect such a decision.

There is but one line of conduct left for an honorable government to adopt, namely to call in all the coupons of the foreign debt, examine the documents and recognize all that bear the genuine signatures of its officers, no matter under what circumstances emitted; the financial public has no thing to do with what transpires in the ante-chamber of Government house. If the executive thinks proper to employ swindlers as confidential clerks, it must be prepared to take the consequences, and not dare to augment the fraud by unjustifiable litigation based on miserable quibbling.

The Government is to blame for having such clerks in its employ, and it is still more to blame for assuming the payment of fraudulently issued documents, knowing them to be such.

"Story says in speaking of fraud"—The party defrauded may however, as we have seen subsequently assent to the fraud, after he is in full knowledge of it. so as to destroy his rights of action, so also mere silence and adquiescence for a long time if entirely unexplained will deprive him of his right upon the presumption of a compromise; so also the same presumption might arise if after the discovery of the fraud the party defrauded still continue to deal with the other."

Can anything be plainer, all the authorities we have looked through are explicit on the subject. Law, equity, honor and strict principle, point to the only course left to the Government, from which we trust they will not attempt to depart.

THE AUNIS MAILS.

The uneasiness which we described as prevailing upon the European Continent in reference to the probabilities of war arising between France and Germany still prevails: but the King of Prussia, whose speech at Kiel excited so much anxiety, has on several occasions since expressed himself as being desirous that peace may be preserved: these asseverations, nevertheless, have not been considered as altogether satisfactory; but the statement which has been made by the Paris Correspondent of the "Journal de Rouen" to the effect that the French Minister of War was preparing to send 80,000 soldiers to their homes, would, if it turned out to be true, have a much more reassuring effect.

The discontent in Spain has at length taken the form of open insurrection. It is estimated that, in Andalusia alone, 15,000 soldiers, and eleven vessels of war, having on board 5,000 men, have declared themselves in favor of the insurrection, which is stated in our latest telegrams to be still spreading. Proclamations dated from 'The Camp of Liberty' have been addressed to the people and to the army; the leading men who were lately deported have returned in private vessels to Spain; General Prim has left London, and is said to have placed himself at the head of the insurrectionists; Malaga has pronounced, and also Santoña, the strongest fortress in Spain; and there is no doubt that the position of the Queen is most perilous. Her Majesty who had gone to St. Sebastian for the purpose of paying a visit to the Emperor of the French, left by train for Madrid on the 21st inst., but was forced to return, the Castle Railway being interrupted.

All the Ministers have resigned, including Gonzales Bravo, who is stated to have taken refuge across the frontier, in France; and a Royal decree has been issued at Madrid, accepting their resignations, and appointing General José Concha, Marquis of Havana, President of the Council, who has not yet been successful in forming a new Cabinet.

It will readily be conceived that, as the telegrams report, 'there is great agitation at Madrid.' The position is most critical, and its issue uncertain. The 'Times,' September 23, has an article on the subject, from which we extract the following passage:—'The Queen has herself been the principal instrument in her own undoing. It has been said that some bodily constitutions are so weak that disease can hardly lay hold upon them, that if it does effect a lodgment there is noting to offer resistance. Queen Isabella's conduct has been such as to have made her by this time opinion-proof. But mere immunity from public opinion is a treacherous gift. Sovereigns who have not thrown it away are sure to possess the active support of public opinion, which is to them what the principle of vitality called constitution is to the physical being. The Queen of Spain, however, has been industrious in sapping that personal reverence which is a necessary guard to all thrones, but most of all to a Constitutional throne founded upon a revolution. The Spanish nation, though it resists, is sensitive to the opinion of its neighbours, and it will be cold in the defence of a Court which has made itself a byword in Europe. Every blow struck at Ministers who stand on the steps of a throne unstable as this, shakes it as well as them. This may be another false alarm—an ordinary Spanish 'pronunciamento', to be followed by its usual consequences of a score of official changes. It is not those who live in sight of a volcano who have the liveliest apprehension of an eruption, and the perpetual smoke and sparks which Spanish politics have been emitting for the last half century have made Europe indifferent to new ebullitions. Nevertheless, Spain remains a political volcano. Unless—which, after such a reign of thirty-five years, hardly, we fear, can form an element in a calm calculation—the Spanish sovereign and Court amend their ways, a real explosion some day will come and hurl them forth; and possibly this may be it.'

Monetary matters have remained in nearly a stationary position. The minimum of the Bank of England continues at 2 per cent., and in general circles the choicest commercial bills are convertible into cash at ⅜ to ½ per cent. lower. The public, however, though weary of receiving only 1 or 2 per cent. for their money, are distrustful of speculative investments, and confine themselves to securities of the most solid and routine class. This state of things may be attributed in a great measure to the gloom which hangs over the political horizon of Europe, and to the general uncertainty which, as a consequence, prevails. All speculative enterprise is suspended, and a feeling of doubt permeates the public mind. Nobody knows what a week may bring forth, and the majority of transactions are necessarily from hand to mouth, and of a very limited degree. The great drawback, then, to the renewal of confidence springs from the continued and aggravated tension of political affairs. During the past week some curt remarks of the King of Prussia caused a panic on the Paris Bourse, and the effect was of such a nature that three Ministers of the Imperial Cabinet thought it their duty to counteract its effect. They sent a joint letter to the Syndic of the Bourse, and this alleviating missive was stuck on the walls to calm the agitated nerves of too sensitive speculators. This avowal of confidence had, however, but slight effect upon the commercial mind, which was disposed to view matters in a contrary light.

Apart from this aggressive and disturbing state of affairs, the crisis of 1866 had not quite exhausted its discouraging influence, although it had nearly arrived at its natural term. 'What occurred,' said the Governor of the Bank of England at the half-yearly meeting of the proprietors on Thursday last, 'in 1866 had been miscalled a panic. It was a crisis arising from and following naturally upon too wide an extension of credit, and this crisis out of its convulsions produced a panic. Upon May 12 it was a banking panic, when people were seized with unreasoning fear for the safety of their money, and rushed to the banks and withdrew it, in many instances to replace it in their possession. Then came a railway panic, when people thought that railway debentures of all kinds were not worth buying. This was succeeded by a commercial panic, when trade came to a standstill; but through all this the Bank had steered on one steady course. With regard to the rate of discount, it of course, depended very much upon supply and demand. If there was a large sum of money to lend and few borrowers, the money must go at a lower rate than if the number of borrowers were greater. Whether the Bank had too much money to lend or too few borrowers, the result was the same.'

We have placed on record this description of the crisis of 1866, because we believe it to be a truthful transcript of that severe and trying incident. We well remember 1825, and the panic of that year, from over speculation, though sharp, was decisive. Several suspensions, and much unforeseen hardship and ruin, were the immediate consequences, but they were, comparatively speaking, quickly got over. The panics of 1837-39, which partly arose from over-trading with the United States, and a bad harvest, lingered longer than their predecessor, but they were not of a very lenghtened duration. The panic of 1847, which arose from over-speculation in Railway matter, and the Irish potatoe rot, soon sank out of recollection, or was sedulously kept below the surface. A few months after the crisis, commercial affairs were proceeding as smoothly as ever. Nearly the same remark will apply to 1857. But we are now suffering from a continuous, and unnaturally protracted crisis. Speculative companies, upon a gigantic scale, have gone down like richly-freighted ships at sea; the great railway interest, involving millions of capital, has undergone some strange metamorphoses, and to complicate the affair, and render it still more perplexing, political troubles have followed closely upon financial difficulties, and a curious embroglio of human interests is the consequence.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Our local colleagues had yesterday their columns exclusively filled with the important news from Spain, of which full details appeared also in the Standard. The very large proportion of Spaniards resident here and the intimate relationship still existing between this country and its mother country, are circumstances that sufficiently amount for the more than usual interest attached to news coming from the old world. Revolutions leading to no terrible result have been a chronic disease in Spain for years past, but the present movement seems to have every prospect of consolidating itself, and of leading to changes scarcely dreamt of. All accounts seem to agree that Queen Isabella's, reign is de facto if not de jure at an end, but the public acts or declarations of the leaders of this revolution give one no clue to know whether merely a change of persons is sought for, or a more radical one in the form of the government. The intelligence by next mail which is anxiously looked for, will clear up this doubt.

The rain that fell so abundantly in this city on the night between Tuesday and Wednesday, seems to have been local and not to have extended to the camp or interfered except in isolated cases with the shearing which is actively going on. The arrivals by train of new wool increase daily and the busy season for produce negotiations may be said to have fairly begun.

The decree appointing General Paunero, Argentine Minister Plenipotentiary to Brazil, was published in the 'Nacional' of Wednesday.

The Provincial Legislature of Buenos Ayres has passed a bill granting a salary of $2,500 per month to each of the Senators and Deputies, hoping by this means, to induce the honorable fathers conscripti to be more punctual and earnest in the discharge of their duties.

Mlle. Uberti, whose benefit is announced for to-morrow night, is not only distinguished by artistic merits of no common order, but by mental and social accomplishments that make her an honor to any society. This rare combination that is not often found in persons of her profession, ought to advocate strongly in her favor with our public, that has always prided itself on its good taste. We doubt not, therefore, that Colon will be full to-morrow night to hear Trovatore.

The French three-mast Pisco, which arrived here on the 26th inst., from Havre, spoke in lat. 32·30 S. and long. 51. W. a small iron steamer the San Martin, 115 days out from Glasgow to Montevideo.

The National Government has received official dispatches from the commander of the central frontier. They confirm the news that the town of Nueve de Julio has not been besieged by the Indians. They, moreover, announce that Col. Granada at the head of 300 men, had marched in pursuit of the invaders, whom it was thought he might overtake, on account of the number of cattle they were driving, and which must have delayed their retreat.

We are happy to see that the traffic returns of the Northern Railway (according to the "Daily News") for the first seven months of 1868 amount to £18,763, being an increase of £1,301 over the same term of the previous year.

We take the following advertisement from a late London paper:—

"Emigration to Brazil.—Passages at £7 each, are now granted by the Government of Brazil to persons desirous of settling in that highly favored country. Freehold land, in blocks of 250 and 500 acres, suitable for sheep and cattle breeding, or agricultural purposes, at one shilling per acre, payable in five years. Smaller lots granted to persons of slender means in the State townships on favorable terms, such as the advancement of implements and seed, a gift to every emigrant of £2 4s. 6d., and the free erection of a temporary house. Meadows & Christopher, Brazilian Emigration Commissioners, 32 Clements Lane, Lombard Street. London, E.C."

Colonel José Luis Amadeo, of the National Guards, has been appointed Commissary General of War and Marine.

A well-known Buenos Ayrean, writing to a leading English resident here from Baden-Baden, under date of the 21st Sept., says:—"I have now been in this delightful spot for five weeks, and have met here any number of acquaintances from all parts. From B. Ayres I found here—Remigio Gonzalez and his wife, then Helmendhal and wife—Desarnaud—Ernesto Cobos—Galindes—Pepe Salas—O'Campo—Ituriaga, &c.....During the race-week there was a grand ball given here at which Mrs. Gonzalez assisted—she looked well, and was considered one of the handsomest women present..... I met here an American who holds a high position in Washington, and knows Sarmiento. In conversation with him I was glad to hear him speak in the highest terms of him. He said that Sarmiento was much esteemed and respected by all the Diplomatic Corps in Washington, where his talents and statistical acquirements were highly appreciated. He considers S. a very superior man, and an honor to any country—and looks forward to his Presidential period in the Argentine Republic as one that will leave a deep mark in the history of the advancement and progress of that nation, One of the principal hobbies of Sarmiento is immigration: and he said that he would not be satisfied till he could establish a current of 100,000 a-year into the Republic. Success to him, say I—but I fear he is too far ahead of his countrymen, who may still consider him loco for preaching and initiating improvements." In another part the same correspondent says—"I hope you may have had good sport and good luck at your Jeppener race meeting in September, and can only hope that by next year I, too, may form one of the party who give the added money of $10,000. It is to be hoped that in case a Jockey Club is established, that the Government—National and Provincial both—may each give a prize of $20.000 to be run for in the Spring and Autumn. Without some such stimulus it is impossible to keep up the spirit of racing. See what has been done in France and Germany during the last ten years, by the Government giving prizes of value. For the Grand Prix of Paris there are now as many entries as for the Derby, and the value of the whole is greater because the added money by the city of Paris is so much more."

This reminds us that we have been requested by the Secretary of the B. Ayres Jockey Club to state that this incipient institution, although still in swaddling clothes, is full of vitality and good promise, and will ere long be launched on its career; it is confidently to be hoped that, with the powerful support of those who have taken charge of it in its infancy, it will be able successfully to overcome all the obstacles that meet its early steps. The next race meeting of the Society is to be held in March or April, and due notice will be given of the exact day, as well as of the program.

Intending competitors at the Palermo Isthmian games on the 11th of next month, must not forget that entries close to-morrow, Saturday, 31st inst. Tickets for the Stand on the day of the meeting, can only be obtained from the Committee, and as only a limited number will be disposed of, early application for them should be made.

We owe to the kindness of Messrs. Mackern a pocket edition of Bunyan's Pilgrim's Progress, which is retailed at the unprecedentedly low price of one paper dollar. It is very neatly got up, and in all conscience, as the advertisement says, 'a marvel of cheapness.'

The official accounts of the depredations committed by the Indians, in their late invasion in the west, make the number of cattle carried of by them amount to 10,000 head, of which, it is stated, that already three quarter parts have been recovered, in consequence of the active persecution that has been organized against these savages of the Pampa.

EFFECTS OF THE CORRETINO WAR

Paysandu, Oct. 25.

Don Justo Jose de Urquiza, as you know, passed up to Concordia on Tuesday last, accompanied by the Buenos Ayres Minister, Velez Sarsfield and a brilliant suite, in hopes, through his intervention, to settle the differences in Corrientes, and again save that province and the frontier of Entre Rios from ruin and the destruction to life and property, which always attends upon civil war. God speed his mission, for in Corrientes, it was not alone a civil war, but a race amongst all disaffected rioters, and principally those who live by plunder 'aprovechan do' as the word is the situation to rob and plunder, heedless of consequences. Those ignorant of the frontiers of the two before named provinces, can scarcely form an idea of the robberies committed, and helplessness of life, without first realising the opportunities afforded for such destruction, by the position Corrientes was in: first, an army in Paraguay heretofore supplied with cattle and horses chiefly from Entre Rios, had still to receive the surplus from the contractors, and the troperos and owners of those troops of cattle and horses, all police laws being at an end, drove before them all they found and could be procured, fearing only they would be seized by Caceres, Bevon's, Lopez's army, or for the National army of Buenos Aires, thus they bought little, but drove all they could, so that in case of any loss from foraging parties it might be the least possible.

Then, after the allies that we have spoken of, Gen. E. Mitre, with the National army, had to be rationed, at Goya, or close to it. His troperos trembled lest they would fall into the hands of the other National army, of Evaristo Lopez, all fearing to fall into the hands of Gen. Caceres or his foraging parties, who had neither money nor credit, but took what they wanted, for they too should have rations.

General Caceres had his backers and supporters, and they had only what they could rob; and as they found a ready sale for hides and tallow, and even animals of all classes, to troperos, for the army, all was game.

Now we have spoken of four armies to be rationed, viz., the Allies, who gladly purchased anything that was brought to them, the 1st National army, at Goya, the 2nd do. at the Paraiso, under Evaristo Lopez; then Caceres, with his backers and supporters, who, like Lopez, had neither cash nor credit, yet lived like fighting-cocks. But this is only on one side; we have still several other armies to support and ration: first, the great division from Concordia, then Lopez, just in from the Parana, and the division La Paz, all in different posts along the frontier. These divisions daily had parties of soldiers coming to them, and going from them, to say nothing of deserters, stragglers, and camp followers, who also eat beef, and ride horses; and last, though not least, was Col. Baron, with his many followers, from the Chaco, ready to throw himself on the commander, and command the La Paz division; but I forgot Colonel Pauyagua, of San José de Felisiano, and his valliant Correntinos, who, report says, killed Col. Bucalde, and sacked the Esquina, besides many other small parties, who waged a 'guerra de recurso' on the frontier of those unfortunate provinces. Then the battle of Garay was fought on the frontier of Entre Rios, where several regiments disbanded, some returning to their homes, and many, for fear of being taken, remain still in the woods plundering.

To realise the ruin caused by those depredators would oblige you Mr. Editor, to stop only an hour either at Goya, Esquina, La Paz, or San José de Felisiano, and you, too, would rejoice as we do in Paysandu, at the visit of Urquiza—for he, and and he alone, can settle those frontier disturbers, heedless of law and rule, detesting the very name of National Government; and Porteños, Entrerianos, and Correntinos found hand-in-hand, and, favored by the 'interminable forests of Montiel, murder and rob, finding a ready market for cattle and horses. Thus it is not remarkable that the Gefe Politico is prepared with an immense escort of cavalry, infantry, and artillery, to receive General Urquiza on his return from the frontiers, should he visit Paysandu, as we all hope, or, if not, visit the General on board, and pay him all the due honors.

On Friday he did not come, but to-day [Sunday], whilst I write, the whole town is in motion. Who could believe this the Paysandu that such a short time since had its walls battered and its inhabitants hacked and slaughtered in its streets; to-day great is the contrast—bands playing, artillery booming, flags of all nations flying, joy depicted on every countenance, and next to Urquiza, none more loved and respected than our worthy Gefe Politico, Col. Caravallo.

If I have a moment when the steamer comes I will advise you. If Urquiza comes in her, Paysandu is prepared to receive him.

INAUGURAL BANQUET.

On Board the 'City of Rio de Janeiro,' of the Royal Mail Steamship Company's line, at Antwerp.

As a sequel to the report contained in our last issue, of the luncheon on board the new steamship 'City of Rio de Janeiro,' at the Victoria Dock on September 9, we give the following brief account of a similar entertainment at Antwerp, on the day of her departure from that port for the Brazils, namely, September 16.

Amongst the guests were their Excellencies M. de Brito, Minister of Brazil; M. Jamar, Minister of Public Works; Messrs. Grattan, English Consul-General; Van den Eynde, Consul for the Argentine Republic; Copperath, Consul for the Banda Oriental; Emile Pecher, Consul for Brazil at Antwerp; Janssens and van der Sweep, Inspectors-General of the Department of Public Works; Mercier, Director General of the Treasury Financial Department; Léopold Orban, Director of the Political Department to the Minister of Foreign Affairs; Adan Director-General of Customs; Kissel, Director of the Belgian Marine; Carlier, captain of the port of Antwerp; Mareira, attaché to the legation of Brazil; Devleesschouwer, agent-general of the company's line of steamers; Isenbaert, agent and shipbroker of the company, &c.

The City of Rio de Janeiro, on board which the banquet took place, is intended to make the complete passage from London to Antwerp, and from the latter port to Rio Janeiro within twenty-three days, being three less than that taken by the English mail

At half-past twelve the guests were introduced into the dining-saloon, and were received by the captain and officers of the vessel.

The banquet was presided over by Mr. Robert Tait, having on his right the Minister of Public Works and the English Consul-General, and on his left the Minister of Brazil and M. Léopold Orban.

At the dessert, Mr. Tait proposed, in English, in the most flattering terms, the customary toast of the Royal Family of Belgium, to which the Minister of Public Works suitably replied.

The next toast was to Queen Victoria, and was reponded to by the English-Consul; and then followed one, with which was coupled the name of Mr. Tait, to the prosperity of the company's line of steamers.

Mr. Tait having returned thanks for himself and the company, proceeded to propose the health of His Majesty the Emperor of Brazil. On every occasion he said, that he had the honour of being brought into personal relations with the Brazilian Emperor, His Majesty had expressed his sincere attachment for the constitution of his empire, and for the grand principle of the alliance of 'order' with 'liberty.'

This toast having been welcomed with vociferous applause.

His Excellency the Minister of Brazil replied in the following terms:—

'Brazil appreciates at its just value its relation, so wide and so useful, with Belgium; of which it admires the marvellous industrial resources, and studies with the most lively interest its progress and wise government. As the representative of my country I share fully in those sentiments; and I feel an ardent enthusiasm for all that serves to extend and render more intimate its relations both with England and with Belgium. (Applause) I welcome from my heart all that brings nearer together the interest of my country and of these great States, whose example urges it, in so impressive a manner, to continue to conquer "order" by "liberty" and wealth by "labor." It is then with the most frank cordiality of sentiment that I drink to the prosperity of the Company, to the intelligence and capital of which, Brazil owes this new line of steamers.' (Loud applause.)

Mr. Tait then proposed a toast to the Republics of La Plata, which was very warmly welcomed, and to which the Consul of the Argentine Republic responded.

The health of the Captain of the steamer and its officers was then drunk with a hearty good will which must have been very agreeable to those gentlemen.

Captain Peters thanked the company, both in his own name and that of his officers, and assured them that nothing on his part should be wanting to render the company as successful as possible, and make the Rio de Janeiro a popular passage ship to Brazil.

The Minister of Public works, specially summoned to Brussels, took leave of the festive party after the toast of the English Consul-General.

Immediately after M. Jammer's departure; the City of Rio de Janeiro, followed by a Government steamer, which had been appointed to take off the guests, got under steam for Brazil, saluting the port with a vigorous salvo from her armament.

The guests returning to Antwerp reassembled at the house of M. Bertrand. There several toasts were also drunk, one in honor of Messrs. Robert and Peter Tait, and another in favour of the Press, which latter was replied to by M. Van Camp, principal editor of the "Précurseur."

At 7 o'clock this second reunion broke up.

The steam Company, it is understood, purpose to organise a new line between Antwerp and New York.

ON 'CHANGE.

	Oct. 29th 1868
Ounces	400.
Sovereigns	122½.
Patacons	25.
Nat. Bonds	46.

Bonds opened at 46⅛ and closed at 46. total cash sales 27,000. The market rules flat, some of the new bonds were in circulation to-day, and a large amount will be emitted to-morrow. The sales on time were insignificant most of the brokers offering to sell largely on time, but few buyers; this has had the effect of placing the prices on time on a lower scale than the cash rate. It is confidently asserted that the whole emission, say two and a half million bonds will be issued before 30 November next.

The spurious Foreign Debt still claims attention. Coupons for two hundred thousand patacons were examined to-day at the Credit-office and declared genuine: no sale, however, could be effected.

Capitalists and brokers are looking forward to the promised statement, with regard to the National exchequer. The amount of floating liabilities is supposed to be very large, but the last loan of three millions, by the Provincial Bank, has relieved the most pressing obligations.

Discounts easy: trade bills 9; accomodation bills, 12 per cent. per annum. A large amount of Government paper arranged a few days since at 9 per cent.

In wools there have been a few sales, and the market looks firmer. Some sales call for special attention. There were some lots sold in public auction, by Unsue—

200 ar. good average class, $57.

300 ar. fair, but not very clean, $52.

A small lot superior, clean, and light. $62.

There were other sales in the market at $55.

The arrivals at the railway sum up to 2,500 ar. Nearly all sold. In the Once there are 15 carts. M. Bertrand sold a small lot by auction in the South Plaza at 55.

The fine steamer Newton leaves for Antwerp on the 12th November, and has already engaged the following cargo:—200 pipes tallow, 60s. 500 bales wool, 50s. A quantity of dry hides, 90s.

Our special reporter at the South Plaza notes to-day some sales of old and new wool, viz.:

One deposit at the Station sold in lump for 15,000 by Bertrand—buyers, Rohl, Lamas, and Co.

200 ar. new wool at	55
300 do.	56
350 do., reserved price.
520 ar. old wool, at	48
1 lot do.	48
Another at	52
3 lots new at	55
340 camp, good matadero dry-hides at	128
200 do.	127
3 small lots at	118, 125
100 dozen sheepskins, matadero,	160
100 do. at	125
Desecho sold at	26
One large lot good camp	115
Another at	75
1500 ar. grease in panzas and casks,	35½

Total arrivals of wool to-day, 3,517 arrobas.

Antwerp, Sept. 23, 1868.

River Plate Wool.—Stock, including arrivals to date, 36,000 bales.

Sales since 1st inst., including 800 bales damaged, sold at auction on 2nd and 17th inst., 4000 bales.

Transit, 1500 bales.

During these last days rather a good demsnd prevailed, but although 4000 bales have been sold, the stocks on hand, on account of the arrivals, remain at the same figure.

Since departure of the English mail, prices ruled generally without change, but were rather irregular however.

Importers and buyers continne much apart in their views; latter offering, as a rule, from 5 to 10 centimes under the prices former are willing to sell at, and in many cases, they cannot come to an agreement.

Considering the enormous arrivals in Europe from all parts during last month, the heavy stocks here, in the other parts where wool is chiefly imported as well as inland—and above all the precarious state of industry, there certainly is no occasion for anticipating a rise of any duration in the quotations of the article.

A British barque, carrying 1,441 bales, arrived on the 20th inst. from Port Elizabeth, and several persons are of opinion that next season the competition of Cape wools will be stronger than ever.

Imports of River Plate wools from 1st January to date, sum up—

	Bales.
	130,000
Floating,	10,000
Loading at the Plate up to middle of August,	5,000
Total,	145,000

In 1867 the whole year gave only 10,500 bales.

BIRTH.

September 13th, at Bowness, Windermere, the wife of R. P. Carlisle, of Montevideo, of a daughter.

PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN-KILLER.

After a trial, by innumerable living witnesses, has proved itself the medicine of the age.—Although there have been many medicinal preparations brought before the public since the first introduction of Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and large amounts expended in their introduction, the Pain Killer has continued to steadily advance in the estimation of the world, as the best Family Medicine ever introduced. It is an internal and external remedy. One positive proof of its efficacy is, that the sales have constantly increased and wholly upon its own merits. The effect of the Pain Killer upon the patient, when taken internally in cases of Cold, Cough, Bowel Complaints, Cholera, Dysentery and other affections of the system, has been truly wonderful, and has won for it a name among medical preparations that can never be forgotten. Its success in removing pain, as an external remedy, in cases of Burns, Bruises, Sores, Sprains, Cuts, Sting of Insects, and other causes of suffering, has secured for it such a host of testimony, as an almost infallible remedy, that it will be handed down to posterity as one of the benefactors of mankind.

SARSAPARILLIAN,
AND ITS
POWERFUL CURATIVE ASSOCIATES.
Prepared under a Newly-Discovered Process for Extracting the Curative Properties from Vegetable Substances, enters into the Composition of
RENOVATING
RESOLVENT.

A NEW PRINCIPLE DISCOVERED.

One Bottle of Resolvent is better than ten large bottles of the advertised Sarsaparillas, or direct Diuretic Remedies.

Physicians wonder at the extraordinary power of Radway's Renovating Resolvent in curing the worst forms of Scrofulous, Syphiloid, Chronic Skin Diseases, and its marvellous power in resolving calculous concretions, affording immediate relief and consequent cure of Diseases of the Kidney, Bladder, Liver, Lungs, Pancreas, Spleen. Its rapid influence in the cure of Diabetes, Incontinence or scanty, turbid, albuminous, cloudy urine; its almost instant efficacy in stopping itching and painful discharge of urine, and its singular power in curing discharges from the Uterus and Urethra, Leucorrhœa, Bloody Urine, and other unhealthy and weakening discharges; and enquire wherein the Sarsaparillian used in the Renovating Resolvent differs from ordinary Sarsaparilla. Sarsaparillian is the only principle in Sarsaparilla that possesses curative properties; all other parts of the root are inert and useless. One ounce of the extract obtained under Dr. Radway's new process for extracting the curative properties from vegetable substances, contains more of the true principle of cure than 20lbs. of the ordinary roots.

Sarsaparillian is only one of the ingredients that forms this truly wonderful medicine; and it is the only compensating remedy that communicates its purifying, cleansing, and reinvigorating properties through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other secretions, securing a harmonious functional action of every depraved organ and gland in the system. If the blood is corrupt, the Resolvent will make it pure. If the lungs are ulcerated and sore, secreting thick phlegm and purulent matter, the Resolvent will loosen this deposit and repair the wasting lung with sound and healthy materials. If the skin is covered with pimples, spots, pustules, sores, ulcers, &c., the Resolvent will quickly remove these annoyances. If mercury is deposited in the bones and has accumulated in the system, the Resolvent will drive it out. If the throat or bronchial glands are ulcerated, the Resolvent will cure these signs of an early waste. Direct remedies, possessing only exclusive properties, are hurtful, as they increase the functional secretions of one organ by suspending the constituent secretions of others; hence, a compensating remedy like the Resolvent is the only means of a permanent cure.

Bear in mind that every drop of blood impregnated with the Resolvent and absorbed to supply the waste of the body, will make pure, sound, and healthy flesh and fibre. The first dose that is taken commences its work of purification and increasing the appetite and flesh.

R. R. R.
THE GREAT REMEDY FOR HOME PURPOSES.

Taken Internally—Half a Teaspoonful diluted in Water, is a pleasant Drink—stimulating and strengthening.

Applied Externally—When there is Pain or Inflammation, affords instant ease.

Radway's Ready Relief
IN ITS SIMPLICITY AND GRANDEUR.
R. R. R.

We will first consider in its capacity as a specialty our far-famed remedy Radway's Ready Relief, symbolized throughout the civilised world under the significant alliteration R. R. R. This remedy is happily possessed of properties that give immediate and positive proof of its excellence, that the most sceptical can feel its power in a few seconds, especially where the sufferer is the victim of excruciating pain. It is not a question with this remedy of time it takes to remove the perception or sensation of pain, or of the cost; for the moment it is applied to the part of the body where pain exists the patient is relieved. And if the pain is from an established disease, a cure will soon follow.

The Ready Relief is a vegetable remedy. It is pure, safe, and innocent. It is quicker in subduing pain and making the patient comfortable than Morphine, Chloroform, Ether, Opium, or any other agent. Its simplicity of application renders it a valuable household necessity, and its usefulness covers the entire range of family accidents that are liable to occur at any moment. The Ready Relief should be kept in every house, for if any injury or accident occurs to a child or grown person, its use will prove of immediate service. It matters not what the difficulty may be. Burn, Scald, Fall, Bruise, Cut, Wound, Poison, Sprain, Strains, Pain, Ache, Cough, Cold, Croup, and a hundred other annoyances that are constantly taking place in every family, this Ready Relief will, in a few minutes, prove its value. If suddenly seized with sickness, and you have no faith in medicines, but wish for a doctor, the Ready Relief will suspend or check the progress of the disease at once, and, in ninety times out of one hundred, cure the patient before the doctor arrives. It can never do harm; but will always do good. Its grand power is the prevention and cure of pestilential and contagious diseases.

It is in diseases were immediate and absolute assistance and relief is required where in this remedy proves its superior, and we might say, supernatural Power in saving life, and promoting health.

In cases where Epidemic Diseases, Pestilence, Small Pox, Fevers, &c., exist, this remedy proves the potent power of a disinfectant, neutralizer and cure. No one that uses the Ready Relief when Asiatic Cholera, Yellow Fever, Typhoid Fever, Small Pox, Diptheria, &c., prevail in a community, will be seized with these diseases; and if seized when using it, will be cured if the directions are followed. Simple as this remedy is, it possesses the elements of cure of the most violent, painful, and fatal diseases that scourge the earth.

The properties of the Ready Relief are counter-irritant, rubefacient, anti-spasmodic, disinfectant, antiseptic, diffusive, stimulant, tonic, nervine, anodyne, anti-acid.

Its use in Asiatic Cholera, either as preventive or cure, is of more value to the world than all other discoveries in vogue.

It instantly secures rest, stops the Cramps and Spasms, and holds the constituents of the blood together, equalising the circulation, and preventing

SAVINGS BANK.

BANK MAUA AND CO.

101--Cangallo--103.

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks, artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following the noble example of their firm in Montevideo, now offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a pass book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

P.P. MAUA & Co.,
M. A. DE FREITAS AMORIM.

CONDITIONS.

First—The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty-five Dollars currency or one Silver Dollar upwards.

Second—The interest allowed is six per cent. (6 p.%) per annum, which is liquidated every six months.

Third—The depositors can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

Fourth—Once the money deposited exceeds twenty-five thousand dollars currency, or one thousand dollars silver, the depositor, if he wishes can open an account current, according to the rules established by the Bank.

Fifth—In case the depositor loses his pass book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.

SARATOGA SPRING "A" WATER

THE SARATOGA "A" SPRING WATER is probably the most effective Mineral Water found on either Continent. It will be observed that it has Ten per Cent. greater Mineral properties than the celebrated Congress Spring, four times that of Baden Baden of Austria, five times that of Aix la Chapelle in Prussia, twice that of Vichy in France, nearly three times greater than the renowned Seltzer of Germany, and equally over the Spas of Bath, England, and Kissengen in Bavaria.

ANALYSIS OF THE SARATOGA "A" SPRING WATER, BY JULIUS G. POHLE' M.D., SURVIVING PARTNER OF JAMES R. CHILTON & POHLE.

Chloride of Sodium	565.300	Sulphate of Potassa	.370
Chloride of Potassium	.357	Silicic Acid	1.460
Chloride of Calcium and Magnesia	traces.	Alumina	.380
Bi-carbonate of Soda	6 752
Bi-carbonate of Lime	56.852	Per Gallon, Grains	656 911/1000
Bi-carbonate of Magnesia	20.480
Bi-carbonate of Iron	1.724	Free Carbonic Acid Gas	212 Cubic Inches
Sulphate of Lime	.448	Atmospheric Air	4 " "
Sulphate of Magnesia	.288
Sulphate of Soda	2.500	Per Gallon	216

The value of Mineral Waters has been prized and acknowledged by Medical Men since the earliest civilisation. A celebrated authority says:—"The virtues of Mineral Waters have been best shown in the treatment of obscure and chronic diseases. In many instances persons have been restored to health, or greatly relieved by, Mineral Waters, where other remedies have failed. The reason, no doubt, is that such Waters must contain compounds not yet known to Chemistry or Pharmacy."

USES.

The reputation of this Water is based upon its effects in Diseases of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys, and Spleen, and acts with wonderful benefit in cases of Chronic Dyspepsia, Constipation, Gravel, Gout, Scrofula, Cutaneous Affections, General Lethargy, Soreness, and Prostration of the System.

THE "GLYCERINE" DIP,

FOR SHEEP AND LAMBS,

FREE FROM ARSENIC, MERCURY, MINERAL AND OTHER POISONS DEADLY TO ALL PARASITES INFESTING THE SKINS OF SHEEP AND OTHER ANIMALS.

THIS PREPARATION is destined to supersede the Compounds hitherto Advertised, and which have a tendency to destroy Animals, injure the Men engaged in Dipping, and weaken the Wool by their caustic and reducing properties.

The "GLYCERINE" DIP can be used with perfect safety at any Season of the Year, and has been found in practice invaluable for the following purposes:—

I.—In Curing Scab, Killing Acari, Fags, Ticks, and other Parasites which attack the Sheep.

II.—In strengthening and adding lustre to the Wool.

III.—In Washing Sheep shortly before Clipping, leaving the Fleeces in a pure state.

IV.—In Dipping Lambs, even whilst suckling ewes, as they cannot be injured by the Material.

V.—In Dipping Rams at any Time of the Year, without danger of producing the excoriations which always follow the use of other Dips, especially in the Autumn Season.
